THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 15.

"CONFEDERATE AUTHORITIES."-In the Washington Court on Saturday; "Morehead vs. Boyle. Justice Wylie delivered the opinion of the court, in substance as follows:

This is an action brought by Eliza Morehead against Cornelius Boyle for an arrest of her for passing through the rebel lines in Virginia. The arrest is not denied, but Dr. Boyle puts in the plea that at the time he was provost marshal in the rebel service, charged with the supervision of that part of Virginia: and that he acted under the orders of General Beauregard; and that the Supreme Court has decided that acts done bona fide under a government de facto cannot subject an official thereunder to an action. We have come to the conclusion to sustain the demurrer. It is true the Supreme Court of the United States have decided that the acts of the rebel authorities will be considered binding so far as they were necessary for the preservation of the good of society. Whether the courts were properly authorized or not is not the question. These decisions are binding, because necessary, and are so considered by the international law.

We do not think it was necessary for the preservation of good order that Dr. Boyle Northwest. should arrest Mrs. Morehead and detain her for three years. We certainly do not think that the fact that a trespasser was a rebel official and committed the trespass in the rebel service is a good plea in bar to a trespass for which he would have been liable if he had not been in rebellion. We therefore sustain the demurrer.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—There are now half a dozen restaurateurs claiming the honor of having resumed specie payments. It is said that the landlords of the city intend to reduce rents after April 1st, on some Three juvenile Chinamen are here to be educated in Howard University, among the colored students.

The excitement concerning the proposed ter ritorial form of government for the District of Columbia still runs high.
